ALEXANDER VON HUMBOLDT
POLISH HONORARY RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP

Application Instructions
2013 edition

Before registering your candidate, please read the Alexander von Humboldt Polish Honorary Research Scholarship Regulations and these instructions carefully.

An application for the Alexander von Humboldt Polish Honorary Research Scholarship consists of an application form and attachments.
Please fill in the application in English.

The process of submitting an application involves the following steps:

1. Registering the candidate online:

filling out the online application form (available on the Foundation's website) and attaching electronic versions of the attachments listed in the programme regulations.

The information provided in the application form may be modified and added to multiple times (including after repeated logging into the system) until final confirmation of the online application.

2. Completing the online registration:

confirming the filled-in online application and sending it electronically to the Foundation, which occurs automatically after final confirmation of the application.

Final confirmation of the application means confirming that the candidate has finished filling in the application and the latest saved version may be sent to the Foundation. Final confirmation consists in pressing the "close the application" button in the "form verification" tab. Final confirmation is possible only if the application is complete, when the "close the application" button becomes active. This can be checked in the "form verification" tab. Please remember that after final confirmation of the application by the candidate, the data it contains will be available for reading only, with no further possibility to make changes.

3. Printing the online application form, which then has to be signed by the applicant and the candidate

4. Sending the printed and signed version of the application form (without attachments) by post to the Foundation's office no later than 30 September 2013 (date as postmarked). Applications postmarked later than this will not be accepted for consideration.
