As revenue may not be estimated reliably in advance using one of the methods referred to in Articles 61.3 or 61.5 of Regulation 1303/2013, where the Project generates revenue by the earlier of the date of expiry of three (3) years of the date of the Foundation’s final payment application being settled by the Intermediary Authority for the Smart Growth Operational Programme (hereinafter referred to as the “IA SGOP”)⁵ or by the deadline for the submission of documents related to the closure of a programme specified in the regulations applicable to relevant funds, it shall be repaid by the IRA Unit on a proportional basis and deducted from the expenditure declared to the European Commission. The repayment shall be made on such terms as set out in the Procedure for revenue calculation and monitoring for beneficiaries receiving funding as part of priority axis IV of the Smart Growth Operational Programme.

12. The IRA Unit shall keep separate accounting records related to Project implementation, in accordance with the principle of transparency, as laid down in the Accounting Act of 29 September 1994, so that individual accounting transactions related to the Project may be identified.

Should a Project Manager cease to fulfil the role of IRA Unit Manager for any reason, the Agreement shall be automatically terminated or expire with respect to the Project Manager, while remaining in force with respect to its remaining parties, i.e. the Foundation and the University. Upon the expiry or termination of the Agreement with respect to the Project Manager, the University shall take over the roles and responsibilities of the Project Manager under the Agreement, also being obliged to appoint an acting Project Manager in accordance with the regulations in place at the IRA Unit, until the competition for the new IRA Unit Manager is resolved and until he/she assumes office.  - 2) it will cooperate closely with the partner being a leading foreign scientific centre, as specified in the Application, with a view to implementing good practices in the field of work organization and research performance at the IRA Unit and in order to ensure the participation of the partner IRA Unit's representatives or individuals recommended by the partner IRA Unit in the ISC. The international agreement constitutes Appendix no. 5 hereto;
 - 3) it has access to research infrastructure, specifically facilities and necessary equipment, on such terms as set out in the Competition Documentation.
19. In particular, the IRA Unit shall comply with the rules applicable to recruitment, work and funding as well as other rules applicable to the IRA Unit's staff, as laid down in the Competition Documentation.
20. The IRA Unit undertakes to apply for all approvals from the ethics committees or other committees and for other permits required by law that are necessary for the conduct of the relevant research prior to the start of the conduct of such research. The IRA Unit shall provide the Foundation, at its request, with copies of the aforementioned consents or permits. The IRA Unit shall ensure that no research whose performance requires a consent or a permit under the applicable laws is conducted prior to receipt of all the necessary consents and permits.

21. The IRA Unit shall implement the Project in a manner ensuring a positive effect on the principle of sustainable development, within the scope specified in the Application.
22. During the Project implementation period and until the end of the Project durability period, the IRA Unit and the Project Manager shall not assign any rights, obligations or receivables under the Agreement to third parties without the written consent of the Foundation. 25. Should the version of the guidelines referred to in Article 5 section 1 of the Act of 11 July 2014 on the Principles of Implementation of the Cohesion Policy Programmes Financed under the 2014-2020 Financial Perspective, as announced during the Project implementation, introduce solutions that are more beneficial to the IRA Unit, the more beneficial solutions shall apply from the day the Project implementation starts.

Remuneration and stipends

1. Should the Project Manager or another IRA Unit staff member be remunerated from funds of both the Project and another project implemented at the IRA Unit and financed by the Foundation, the sum of his/her remuneration under R&D projects implemented at the IRA Unit and financed by the Foundation shall not exceed the suggested amount of remuneration specified in the Competition Documentation. The Project Manager and other Project participants receiving remuneration or stipends for their work on the Project from Project funds shall not receive a stipend under another programme financed by the Foundation, with the exception of stipends received as part of the START programme.
2. The IRA Unit shall verify from time to time during Project implementation whether the employee receiving remuneration from the Project funds is not claiming a stipend in any other project financed by the Foundation and whether the total workload of that employee does not exceed 276 hours a month.
3. Where a staff member is working on the Project on a part-time basis at an IRA Unit, the remuneration he/she receives as part of the Project shall depend on the amount of time, calculated as a share of full-time equivalent, that he/she dedicates to the performance of tasks related to the implementation of the Project at the IRA Unit, and it shall not exceed the same percentage share of the suggested remuneration as specified in the Competition Documentation.
4. The IRA Unit shall notify the Foundation in the financial reports of the percentage share of full-time equivalent corresponding to the involvement in the Project of each staff member who receives remuneration from Project funds and of his/her total workload in hours per month. Should an employee's total workload exceed 276 hours monthly, the employee's remuneration from the Project funds shall constitute ineligible expenditure for each month in which 276 hours were exceeded.
5. The rules for claiming and disbursing personal scholarships for students and PhD students constitute the object of separate agreements signed at the request of the Project Manager between the Foundation, the Project Manager and the student or PhD student concerned.

The IRA Unit undertakes not to pay the students and PhD students any remuneration from the Project funds during the period when they claim stipends from the Project funds.

6. The IRA Unit undertakes to observe the expenditure eligibility criteria associated with the engagement of persons performing assignments under the Project as defined in the Cost Eligibility Guide.

Project value and grant amount

1. On the terms set out in the Agreement, the Foundation hereby awards a grant (funding) to the IRA Unit in the maximum amount of PLN [_____] (say: [_____] Polish zlotys), which represents 100% of the total amount of eligible expenditure under the Project.
2. The funds for the implementation of the Project shall be allocated as per the Project budget, which constitutes Appendix no. 1 to the Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Project budget").
3. The index of costs settled on a lump sum basis shall amount to 17% of the eligible expenditure shown in the remaining cost categories, excluding the subcontracting and cross-financing costs.
4. The Parties agree that the funds referred to in Section 4.1 shall be managed by the Project Manager. Expenditure by the IRA Unit of the financing provided by the Foundation, including the costs settled using the simplified (lump sum) method, shall be approved by the Project Manager. A division of the IRA Unit competent for financial affairs may refuse to approve the Project Manager's instruction concerning expenditure of the financing in the event of its non-compliance with applicable laws or the provisions of the Agreement.

6. The IRA Unit shall be obliged to provide by itself financing for the ineligible expenditures necessary for implementation of the Project.
7. Where the amount of eligible expenditure is changed, in particular as a result of modification of the scope of the Project, the amount of funding granted may either be increased or reduced in accordance with the provisions hereof and in accordance with the Competition Documentation, with the consent of the Foundation, with the proviso that no increase in the amount of the funding may result from adding new expenditure categories which have not been defined in the Competition Documentation.
8. The amount of funding may be reduced in particular where:
 - 1) the indicators have not been achieved – in which case the amount of funding may be reduced in proportion to the degree to which the indicators have not been achieved;
 - 2) the results of the interim assessment are negative;
 - 3) amounts to be repaid due to irregularities have been identified;
 - 4) the Foundation concludes that funds have not been used under the Project where the IRA Unit has not stated the reason for not using the funds or where the reasons provided are insufficient – in which case the Foundation shall have the right both to reduce the grant amount unilaterally and to modify the Project budget.

Expenditure eligibility

1. The expenditure eligibility period shall correspond to the Project implementation period.
2. Any expenditure incurred by the IRA Unit prior to the commencement of the period referred to in Section 5.1 or following its expiry shall be regarded as ineligible expenditure.

4. A list of eligible costs and the principles for documenting eligible expenditure have been laid down in the Cost Eligibility Guide. Should a version of the Cost Eligibility Guide published during Project implementation introduce solutions that are more beneficial to the IRA Unit, the more beneficial solutions shall apply from the day the Project implementation started.
5. Any payments from the bank account referred to in Section 6.3 shall only be made as payments for expenditure which meets the eligibility criteria for support under the Project, in the amount corresponding to the relevant funding.
6. The funds disclosed in the financial reports as costs settled using the simplified (lump-sum, O) method may be incurred solely in connection with the implementation of the Project.
7. Any expenditure incurred to finance value added tax (VAT, hereinafter referred to as "VAT") may be regarded as eligible expenditure if VAT is not refundable or deductible to the benefit of the IRA Unit, which shall be confirmed by the IRA Unit in the VAT eligibility declaration which constitutes Appendix no. 6 hereto.
8. Where the Unit is entitled to deduct VAT from the value of goods and services purchased under the Project or have it refunded following submission of the declaration referred to in Section 7, whether during the Project implementation period or the Project durability period as referred to in Section 9.2, the IRA Unit shall file an updated declaration with the Foundation.
9. The IRA Unit shall be obliged to return VAT that has previously been erroneously deemed not to be subject to deduction or refund, and for which the IRA Unit has received funding. The IRA Unit's liability in this respect shall cease to be due and payable from the day on which the IRA Unit becomes eligible to claim deduction or refund of VAT. If this is the case, the VAT shall be refunded under the terms set out in Section 15.2 plus interest in the amount set for tax arrears. The interest referred to in the preceding sentence shall accrue from the day the IRA Unit is provided with the financing from which the aforementioned VAT was funded, until the day of its return to the bank account designated by the Foundation. The time limit referred to in Section 15.2 shall run from the day on which the IRA Unit is served with the call to repay the funding.
10. In the event that the Agreement is terminated and subject to the remaining provisions hereof, any expenditure incurred by the IRA Unit under the Project may be regarded by the Foundation as ineligible expenditure.

Grant provision and settlement terms

1. The IRA Unit shall receive the grant in the form of advance payments, which shall be made in instalments in such amounts and on such terms as set out in the instalment payment schedule which constitutes Appendix no. 3 hereto. Where necessary, eligible expenditure approved by the Foundation may also be reimbursed.
2. The instalment payment schedule does not take account of funds allocated to personal scholarships for students and PhD students, which shall be paid on such terms as set out in the agreements referred to in Section 3.5. This section shall not apply to the grant amount allocated to payment of the aforesaid scholarships.

3. The grant shall be transferred to the University's interest-bearing bank account separated for the Project, number [_____] (hereinafter referred to as the "IRA Unit's bank account"). In commercially justified cases, the bank account may be non-interest bearing.

The second and subsequent instalments shall be transferred promptly after the Foundation's approval of the financial and progress reports (where the payment date of the instalment falls after the submission date of the progress report), subject to the provisions hereof, in particular the rules laid down in the instalment payment schedule.
6. The second and subsequent instalments shall be paid provided that:
 - 1) properly filled-in and complete financial and progress reports have been filed by the IRA Unit (where the payment date of the instalment falls after the date of the submission of the progress report);
 - 2) the results of verification of the financial and progress reports are positive and the financial and progress reports are approved (where the payment date of the instalment falls after the submission date of the progress report), including the Foundation's approval of the eligible expenditure reported by the IRA Unit;
 - 3) at least 70% of all advance payments made previously by the Foundation have been settled by the IRA Unit.
7. The highest advance payment under the Project shall not exceed 20% of the grant amount referred to in Section 4.1 hereof.
8. The settlement of the advance payment shall consist in reporting eligible expenditure incurred against the advance payment in the financial report and such expenditure being approved by the Foundation.
9. The amount of funding received as an advance payment and not used by the end of the financial year, shall be made available to the IRA Unit in the following financial year and kept in the IRA Unit's bank account.
10. The IRA Unit shall be obliged to return the bank interest accrued in the IRA Unit's bank account during a given calendar year on the amount of funding transferred as an advance payment by January the 20th of the year following payment of the advance, by way of a separate funds transfer to the bank account designated by the Foundation.
11. The IRA Unit shall not be entitled to receive any damages in the event of late payment of the funding, in particular as a result of:
 - 1) a lack or a shortage of funds in the financial plan or in the Foundation's bank account separated for the Programme;
 - 2) the IRA Unit's failure to perform or inadequate performance of the Agreement;
 - 3) delay in the disbursement of the funding due to the factors beyond the Foundation's control;
 - 4) suspension of payment of the funding in such circumstances as specified in the Agreement;
 - 5) a refusal by the competent authorities, including the European Commission, to provide support from public funds, whether to the IRA Unit or to the Foundation.

If the delay in the funds payment referred to in Section 11.1 and 11.3 exceeds 30 days from the date following the day the Foundation approved the IRA Unit's last financial report that the IRA Unit was obliged to submit under the Agreement and at the same time when the funds in the IRA Unit's bank account are insufficient to meet the previously contracted financial obligations related to the Project implementation, the IRA Unit may terminate the Agreement as per Section 14.1. Section 15.10 may apply under such circumstances.

Reporting and Project implementation monitoring

1. The IRA Unit shall inform the Foundation on an ongoing basis of the progress in Project implementation, specifically as regards the achievement of the specified indicators and the use of funds, so that the IRA Unit's implementation of the Project may be monitored by the Foundation, with the proviso that:

The financial report may be filed earlier in the event that the IRA Unit has used 70% of the advance payments received prior to the expiry of the aforementioned period. In the case specified in the preceding sentence, the financial report shall cover full calendar months and the time limits for the filing of the next financial report shall run from the first day of the following month;
 - 3) a lack of expenditure shall not release the IRA Unit from the obligation to file the financial report within the prescribed time limit;
 - 4) The final report shall be filed by the IRA Unit with the Foundation no later than within thirty (30) days of the date of the Foundation's approval of the last periodic reports as referred to in Sections 7.1.1 and 7.1.2, but not later than on 15 January 2024;

 - 2) acceptance of the report only with regard to the costs approved by the Foundation.
8. The Foundation may correct obvious typographical or calculation errors identified in the financial report and/or in the statement of eligible expenditure, of which the IRA Unit shall promptly be notified. The above changes do not require the IRA Unit to revise the report in this regard.

12. The IRA Unit shall store post-inspection memoranda, post-inspection recommendations or other equivalent documents drawn up by the institutions and entities referred to in Section 13.1 and the audit reports over a period not shorter than the period referred to in Sections 13.13 and 13.14 (unless a longer period of storage is required by law). § 15

Repayment of the funding and recovery of funds

1. Any funds disbursed by the Foundation but not used under the Project shall be repaid within twenty-five (25) days of the Project completion or Agreement termination date to such bank account as may be specified by the Foundation.
2. Any funds which have not been used in accordance with the eligibility criteria shall be repaid to such bank account as may be specified by the Foundation, within fourteen (14) days of the date of service of a repayment notice.
3. Subject to the provisions of this paragraph, in the event of termination of the Agreement, at the request of the Foundation the IRA Unit shall repay:
 - 1) all the funds provided to it under the Agreement, or at least that part of the grant which has been used improperly or in contravention of the Agreement or regarded as ineligible expenditure (depending on the scope of the Foundation's request), within fourteen (14) days of the date of service of the request, along with interest accrued as for tax arrears for the period from the transfer of the funds to the IRA Unit's bank account to the date of their being repaid⁹ along with bank interest accrued on the amount of the funding provided as an advance payment;
 - 2) the equivalent of funds provided under the agreements referred to in Section 3.5, on the terms set out in Section 15.4.1, with the proviso that interest shall accrue from the date of stipend payment to individual scholarship holders.
4. The IRA Unit shall be obliged to return the financing upon discovery by the control bodies of a breach of the rules and of the terms and conditions of implementation of the Project as defined in the Agreement, acts of national and European Union law, and especially in the event that:
 - 1) it is identified that the funding granted has not been used in conformity with the Agreement;
 - 2) the funding has been received unduly;

10. In exceptional duly justified cases, at the written and reasonable request of the IRA Unit, the Foundation may waive its right to demand a repayment of settled funds or the right to demand the payment of interest, considering in particular the IRA Unit's performance of the Agreement. The solution described above may be applicable, e.g. when failure of the Project was due to a force majeure event and in situations which could not be predicted before the start of Project implementation if an analysis conducted shows that the IRA Unit acted in compliance with national and European Union laws, the provisions of the Agreement, with due diligence and applying the standards described in the European Charter for Researchers, and the Project's failure was not due to the IRA Unit employees' or representatives' unauthorised action or failure to act;

Amendments to the Agreement – procedure and scope

1. This Agreement may be amended by way of a unanimous statement of intent made by the Parties in writing, otherwise being null and void, subject to the provisions of Sections 16.3, 16.11, 16.12, 16.13 and 17.8.
2. Any need to amend the Agreement shall be communicated by the University or Project Manager no later than three (3) months before the expiry of the Project implementation period.
3. Any changes to:

 - 3) the Project Manager's address and identity document

shall not require an amendment to the Agreement but a prompt notice to the Foundation, subject to Section 16.4.

4. Should a payment be made by the Foundation into an incorrect bank account as a result of the IRA Unit's failure to fulfil the obligation referred to in Section 16.3, any costs related to a subsequent transfer and any consequences of seeking the repayment of funds that constitute unjust enrichment of a third party, including the consequences of their loss, shall be borne by the IRA Unit. The IRA Unit shall be liable jointly and severally with any unjustly enriched third party and shall be obliged to return, at the Foundation's request, the full amount which was transferred to the bank account with the wrong number. At the time the full amount is returned, the Foundation shall declare that it transfers to the IRA Unit the title in any and all recourse financial claims it may hold against the unjustly enriched third party.
5. Any proposed changes to the Project which require the drawing up of an annex hereto shall be announced by the IRA Unit or the Project Manager in writing along with a statement of reasons and a proposal for reallocation of funds in the Project budget, broken down by the reporting periods. The Foundation shall examine whether the proposed change is reasonable, taking account of the factors which influenced the selection of the Project and the impact of the proposed change on the Project results and Programme indicators.
6. No change to the Project as a result of which the Project would no longer meet the project selection criteria used as the basis for its evaluation, as laid down in the Competition Documentation, shall be allowed.
7. No change to the Project as a result of which a grant would not be awarded for the Project at the time of its evaluation in the course of the project selection procedure, shall be allowed.
8. The Foundation may agree to an extension of the Project implementation period, subject to Sections 16.9 and 8.3.1b, in particular in the following cases:
 - 1) where the Project implementation period identified in the Application is shorter than the maximum allowed period set in the Competition Documentation, the Project implementation period may be extended to the aforementioned maximum Project implementation period; or
 - 2) where the Project implementation period identified in the Agreement is the maximum allowed Project implementation period set in the Competition Documentation, the Project implementation period may be extended by no more than three (3) months.
9. Should the Project implementation period be extended by mutual agreement of the Parties as compared to the period set in the Application, the Project implementation period shall not be longer than until 30 June 2023.
10. Subject to the remaining provisions of the Agreement, the IRA Unit and the Project Manager shall submit requests for changes to the Project to the Foundation (along with a statement of reasons), including those which do not necessitate any amendments to the Agreement, within fourteen (14) days of the occurrence of circumstances necessitating such a change. The Foundation may refuse to introduce all or some of the proposed changes, or request that changes other than those requested by the IRA Unit and the Project Manager be introduced to the Project.
11. Any changes to:
 - 1) the instalment payment schedule with respect to the reporting periods or reallocation of funds between instalments;
 - 2) the Project budget with respect to reallocation of funds between individual budget categories (while complying with the percentage thresholds for expenditure in the cost categories defined in the Competition Documentation or the Cost Eligibility Guide; changes resulting in modification of the agreed thresholds shall be tantamount to regarding the amounts in excess of the threshold as ineligible); shall not require an amendment to the Agreement in the form of an annex, but they shall require the IRA Unit to introduce changes to the instalment payment schedule or the Project budget through the IT system made available by the Foundation, and their disclosure in the next financial report and approval by the Foundation.

12. Any changes to the time limits for the completion of individual measures and Project stages, as defined in the Project implementation schedule attached as Appendix no. 2 hereto – where the change has no effect on the Project completion date specified in the Agreement – shall not require an amendment to the Agreement in the form of an annex, but they shall require the Foundation’s prior written consent.
13. No changes to the details included in the description of the IRA project implementation location referred to in Section 1.3.1 shall result in a deterioration of the Project implementation conditions. Such a change shall not require an amendment to the Agreement in the form of an annex, but it shall require a prompt notice to the Foundation and the Foundation’s acceptance.
14. The Competition Documentation relating to the conditions to be satisfied by the IRA Unit during the Project implementation period as well as the procedures to be applied during the Project implementation period may be also updated following the execution hereof, unilaterally by the Foundation, to which the University and the Project Manager hereby consent. The Foundation shall notify the University and the Project Manager of any updates and their scope. Where an update of the Competition Documentation results in a conflict between the provisions of the Agreement and the updated Competition Documentation, the Parties shall promptly sign an annex to the Agreement to bring it into line with the up-to-date version of the Competition Documentation. Should the University or Project Manager fail to give their consent, following the update, to the amendments arising from the updated Competition Documentation, they shall be obliged to continue implementation of the Project on the previously applicable terms and conditions (from before the update of the Competition Documentation), except for the amendments arising from the Foundation’s obligations towards IA SGOP, in particular those arising from the future amendments to the agreement between the Foundation and IA SGOP, which amendments the University and the Project Manager are obliged to enforce.
